B. STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

Procedural History of the Dispute

1. On June 15, 2004 the Claimants served upon Canada a Notice of Intent to Submit a Claim to Arbitration (NOI). The Claimants delivered the NOI at least 90 days before this claim was submitted in accordance with NAFTA Article 1119.
2. This Claim has been submitted less than three years from the date on which the investors first acquired, or should have first acquired, knowledge of the breach and knowledge that the investors had incurred losses or damage, pursuant to Article 1116 of the NAFTA. Pursuant to NAFTA Article 1120, the investors submit this claim on the basis that more than six months have elapsed since events giving rise to the claim.

3. On January 31, 2005 the Investors filed their consents and waivers to the extent required by NAFTA Article 1121(1) with the submission of this claim. A copy of the consents and waivers are attached to this statement of the claim.
4. Despite repeated attempts of the Investors to hold a consultation with Canada at a mutually acceptable forum and time, the disputing parties were unable to agree to a consultation prior to the submission of this claim.
5. The Investors submit that they have fulfilled their obligations under NAFTA Article 1118 and that the Government of Canada has waived any right to call for further and subsequent discussions.

Jurisdiction of this Tribunal

6. The Investors' claims meets the requirements set out in Section B of Chapter 11 of the NAFTA, including UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, for seeking compensation from a Dispute Settlement Tribunal for any harm caused by the breach of a party's obligations under Section A of Chapter 11.
7. Sections A and B of NAFTA Chapter 11 contain the contract between the disputing parties and the arbitration agreement between them. Pursuant to paragraph one of Article 18 of the UNCITRAL Arbitration rules, a copy of this NAFTA Chapter is annexed to this Statement of the Claim.
8. To bring a claim, a Claimant must be an investor of a party. The Investors, all Claimants, have been illegally prevented from operating in Canada, by operation of Canadian immigration laws and rules, and by the acts and practices of the Canadian Audio Visual Certification Office (CAVCO), an arm of the Government of Canada.
9. Canada's (and its provinces') measures to subsidize certain companies operating in Canada in the production of television programs, and Canada's measures restricting the employment of citizens of the United States on these productions, were measures relating to the investments of investors of another NAFTA Party and to investors of another NAFTA party.
10. Section A of Chapter 11 of the NAFTA sets out the obligations of NAFTA Parties to provide a certain standard of treatment to the investors of another party. Section A includes the obligation to grant national treatment to investors (Article 1102), to meet minimum standards of treatment (Article 1105), not to impose performance requirements (Article 1106) and to pay the fair market value in the case of expropriation or a measure tantamount to expropriation without delay (Article 1110). The Investors have alleged that the Canadian government measures breached these Section A obligations in its Notice of Intent to Submit a Claim and in this Statement of Claim.

11. The Government of Canada (including the actions of its provinces) has caused loss or damage to the investors by reason of, or arising out of, its breach of obligations contained in Section A of NAFTA Chapter 11.
12. The actions of the Government of Canada (including the actions of its provinces) constitute a measure which has resulted in harm to the investors and their potential investment in Canada.

The Claims

13. Canada (including its provinces) has acted in a manner inconsistent with at least four provisions of NAFTA as follows:

Claim I: National Treatment/Equal Treatment

14. NAFTA Article 1102 sets out NAFTA's national treatment obligation for investment. Under Article 1102(2) the investments of Investors of other NAFTA parties must be given the best in-jurisdiction treatment with respect to the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation and sale of other disposition of investments in like circumstances to the investments of Canadian investors. When read substantively, the national treatment obligation ensures that all companies, whether domestic or foreign, are treated equally and without discrimination.
15. The Investors spent considerable time and money developing a television program for AMC, American Movie Classics and others (AMC), called "The Wrong Coast," for airing in Canada and other nations.
16. AMC, directly or indirectly, applied to the Canadian Audio-Visual Certification Office (CAVCO) for subsidies for The Wrong Coast. CAVCO, and Canadian statutes, rules and regulations, require that only Canadian citizens work on projects that receive these subsidies. Canada and CAVCO has thus violated NAFTA by failing to treat Contractual Obligation Productions, LLC, Charles Robert Underwood and Carl Paolino the same as its own citizens.
17. CAVCO approved subsidies for the following Canadian firms to work on The Wrong Coast: Blueprint Entertainment, Cuppa Coffee, Curious Pictures and Moving Parts Productions, but failed to provide equal treatment to Contractual Obligation Productions, LLC, Charles Robert Underwood and Carl Paolino because it considered them to be ineligible for these subsidies.
18. Canadian statutes, rules and regulations prohibit Contractual Obligation Productions, LLC, Charles Robert Underwood and Carl Paolino from working in Canada, and thus have denied them equal treatment with Canadian citizens and companies in violation of NAFTA.

Claim II: Minimum Standard of Treatment

19. NAFTA Article 1105 sets out NAFTA's legal obligations for investment requiring that Canada treat the Investor and its investment in accordance with international law, including fair and equitable treatment.
20. GATT, the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, is a part of applicable international law.
21. Canadian and Canadian provincial subsidies concerning the manufacturing of film and television productions are in violation of the GATT.
22. GATT defines a subsidy to be "a financial contribution by a government or any public body within the territory of a Member" Article One of the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures (ASCM), GATT, 1994. Canadian and Canadian provincial rebates and other payments to film production companies constitute a subsidy under GATT.
23. For a subsidy to be illegal under GATT, it must be provided to a specific industry. Section 2.1 of the ASCM. The subsidies in question have been provided only to one specific industry, the film and television production industry.
24. GATT provides "A Member shall neither grant nor maintain subsidies referred to above. No Member should cause, through the use of any subsidy referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 1, adverse effects to the interests of other Members. . . ." (emphasis added), Section 3.2 of ASCM.
25. Canada and the United States are members of GATT.
26. The World Trade Organization (WTO) ruled recently, based on a complaint by Brazil, that agricultural subsidies are illegal under the provisions of GATT.

Claim III: Performance Requirement

27. NAFTA Article 1106(1) prohibits a number of specific governmental activities collectively referred to as "performance requirements." Under Article 1106(1), a Party may not impose or enforce a "requirement, commitment or undertaking" in connection with the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct or operation of an investment with an Investor.
28. Under subparagraph (1)(a) of Article 1106, a NAFTA Party may not require investors to include in their products or services any amount of goods or services that originate within the Party.
29. The CAVCO requirement of participation by Canadian citizens and companies is in violation of subparagraph (1)(a) of Article 1106.

Claim IV: Expropriation.

30. A fundamental obligation contained in NAFTA relates to expropriation. This obligation is contained in Article 1110. It does not define expropriation, but it is clear that it is designed to protect against direct and indirect measures by extending its coverage to “measures tantamount to expropriation.”
31. Under international law, expropriation refers to governmental acts that deny use of property.
32. Canada’s film subsidies, and the conditions of these subsidies that require Canadian citizenship, are tantamount to expropriation of the property of those, including Contractual Obligation Productions, LLC, Charles Robert Underwood and Carl Paolino, who have suffered as a result of these illegal subsidies.
33. The Wrong Coast has been expropriated by the Canadian Government.

Losses Suffered by the Investors

34. The Investors have suffered or will suffer the following losses:
 - a. Lost sales and profits during the past two years;
 - b. Loss of value of their investment;
 - c. Damage to their reputation caused by the prohibition on Investors participating in film production in Canada;
 - d. Fees and expenses of professional services incurred to defend itself from NAFTA and GATT inconsistent measures.

C. THE POINTS AT ISSUE

35. There are three basic points at issue:
 - a. Has the Government of Canada taken measures inconsistent with its obligations under Section A of Chapter 11 of NAFTA?
 - b. Are the subsidies to film and television production provided by Canada and its provinces illegal under GATT and/or NAFTA?
 - c. Are Canada’s immigration and work rules that restrict citizens of the United States from participating in film and television projects illegal under NAFTA?

D. RELIEF OR REMEDY SOUGHT

36. The claimants seek a declaration that Canadian subsidies to film and television production are illegal under NAFTA and GATT.
37. The claimants seek US $20,000,000 (TWENTY MILLION UNITED STATES DOLLARS) arising out of the Government of Canada's breaches of its NAFTA and GATT obligations.
38. Claimants seek costs, including professional fees, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at a rate to be fixed by the Tribunal.
39. Claimants seek further relief as counsel may advise and the Tribunal may deem appropriate.

Article 1101: Scope and Coverage

1. This Chapter applies to measures adopted or maintained by a Party relating to:
 - (a) investors of another Party;
 - (b) investments of investors of another Party in the territory of the Party; and
 - (c) with respect to Articles 1106 and 1114, all investments in the territory of the Party.
2. A Party has the right to perform exclusively the economic activities set out in Annex III and to refuse to permit the establishment of investment in such activities.
3. This Chapter does not apply to measures adopted or maintained by a Party to the extent that they are covered by Chapter Fourteen (Financial Services).
4. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent a Party from providing a service or performing a function such as law enforcement, correctional services, income security or insurance, social security or insurance, social welfare, public education, public training, health, and child care, in a manner that is not inconsistent with this Chapter.

Article 1102: National Treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investors of another Party treatment no less favorable than that it accords, in like circumstances, to its own investors with respect to the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation, and sale or other disposition of investments.
2. Each Party shall accord to investments of investors of another Party treatment no less favorable than that it accords, in like circumstances, to investments of its own investors with respect to the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation, and sale or other disposition of investments.
3. The treatment accorded by a Party under paragraphs 1 and 2 means, with respect to a state or province, treatment no less favorable than the most favorable treatment accorded, in like circumstances, by that state or province to investors, and to investments of investors, of the Party of which it forms a part.
4. For greater certainty, no Party may:
 - (a) impose on an investor of another Party a requirement that a minimum level of equity in an enterprise in the territory of the Party be held by its nationals, other than nominal qualifying shares for directors or incorporators of corporations; or
 - (b) require an investor of another Party, by reason of its nationality, to sell or otherwise dispose of an investment in the territory of the Party.

Article 1103: Most-Favored-Nation Treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investors of another Party treatment no less favorable than that it accords, in like circumstances, to investors of any other Party or of a non-Party with respect to the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation, and sale or other disposition of investments.
2. Each Party shall accord to investments of investors of another Party treatment no less favorable than that it accords, in like circumstances, to investments of investors of any other Party or of a non-Party with respect to the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct, operation, and sale or other disposition of investments.

Article 1104: Standard of Treatment

Each Party shall accord to investors of another Party and to investments of investors of another Party the better of the treatment required by Articles 1102 and 1103.

Article 1105: Minimum Standard of Treatment

1. Each Party shall accord to investments of investors of another Party treatment in accordance with international law, including fair and equitable treatment and full protection and security.
2. Without prejudice to paragraph 1 and notwithstanding Article 1108(7)(b), each Party shall accord to investors of another Party, and to investments of investors of another Party, non-discriminatory treatment with respect to measures it adopts or maintains relating to losses suffered by investments in its territory owing to armed conflict or civil strife.
3. Paragraph 2 does not apply to existing measures relating to subsidies or grants that would be inconsistent with Article 1102 but for Article 1108(7)(b).

Article 1106: Performance Requirements

1. No Party may impose or enforce any of the following requirements, or enforce any commitment or undertaking, in connection with the establishment, acquisition, expansion, management, conduct or operation of an investment of an investor of a Party or of a non-Party in its territory:

- (a) to export a given level or percentage of goods or services;
- (b) to achieve a given level or percentage of domestic content;
- (c) to purchase, use or accord a preference to goods produced or services provided in its territory, or to purchase goods or services from persons in its territory;
- (d) to relate in any way the volume or value of imports to the volume or value of exports or to the amount of foreign exchange inflows associated with such investment;
- (e) to restrict sales of goods or services in its territory that such investment produces or provides by relating such sales in any way to the volume or value of its exports or foreign exchange earnings;
- (f) to transfer technology, a production process or other proprietary knowledge to a person in its territory, except when the requirement is imposed or the commitment or undertaking is enforced by a court, administrative tribunal or competition authority to remedy an alleged violation of competition laws or to act in a manner not inconsistent with other provisions of this Agreement; or
- (g) to act as the exclusive supplier of the goods it produces or services it provides to a specific region or world market.

2. A measure that requires an investment to use a technology to meet generally applicable health, safety or environmental requirements shall not be construed to be inconsistent with paragraph 1(f). For greater certainty, Articles 1102 and 1103 apply to the measure.

3. No Party may condition the receipt or continued receipt of an advantage, in connection with an investment in its territory of an investor of a Party or of a non-Party, on compliance with any of the following requirements:

- (a) to achieve a given level or percentage of domestic content;
- (b) to purchase, use or accord a preference to goods produced in its territory, or to purchase goods from producers in its territory;
- (c) to relate in any way the volume or value of imports to the volume or value of exports or to the amount of foreign exchange inflows associated with such investment; or
- (d) to restrict sales of goods or services in its territory that such investment produces or provides by relating such sales in any way to the volume or value of its exports or foreign exchange earnings.

4. Nothing in paragraph 3 shall be construed to prevent a Party from conditioning the receipt or continued receipt of an advantage, in connection with an investment in its territory of an investor of a Party or of a non-Party, on compliance with a requirement to locate production, provide a service, train or employ workers, construct or expand particular facilities, or carry out research and development, in its territory.

5. Paragraphs 1 and 3 do not apply to any requirement other than the requirements set out in those paragraphs.

6. Provided that such measures are not applied in an arbitrary or unjustifiable manner, or do not constitute a disguised restriction on international trade or investment, nothing in paragraph 1(b) or (c) or 3(a) or (b) shall be construed to prevent any Party from adopting or maintaining measures, including environmental measures:

- (a) necessary to secure compliance with laws and regulations that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement;
- (b) necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health; or
- (c) necessary for the conservation of living or non-living exhaustible natural resources.

Article 1107: Senior Management and Boards of Directors

1. No Party may require that an enterprise of that Party that is an investment of an investor of another Party appoint to senior management positions individuals of any particular nationality.

2. A Party may require that a majority of the board of directors, or any committee thereof, of an enterprise of that Party that is an investment of an investor of another Party, be of a particular nationality, or resident in the territory of the Party, provided that the requirement does not materially impair the ability of the investor to exercise control over its investment.

Article 1108: Reservations and Exceptions

1. Articles 1102, 1103, 1106 and 1107 do not apply to:

- (a) any existing non-conforming measure that is maintained by
 - (i) a Party at the federal level, as set out in its Schedule to Annex I or III,
 - (ii) a state or province, for two years after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, and thereafter as set out by a Party in its Schedule to Annex I in accordance with paragraph 2, or
 - (iii) a local government;
- (b) the continuation or prompt renewal of any non-conforming measure referred to in subparagraph (a); or
- (c) an amendment to any non-conforming measure referred to in subparagraph (a) to the extent that the amendment does not decrease the conformity of the measure, as it existed immediately before the amendment, with Articles 1102, 1103, 1106 and 1107.

2. Each Party may set out in its Schedule to Annex I, within two years of the date of entry into force of this Agreement, any existing nonconforming measure maintained by a state or province, not including a local government.

3. Articles 1102, 1103, 1106 and 1107 do not apply to any measure that a Party adopts or maintains with respect to sectors, subsectors or activities, as set out in its Schedule to Annex II.

4. No Party may, under any measure adopted after the date of entry into force of this Agreement and covered by its Schedule to Annex II, require an investor of another Party, by reason of its nationality, to sell or otherwise dispose of an investment existing at the time the measure becomes effective.

5. Articles 1102 and 1103 do not apply to any measure that is an exception to, or derogation from, the obligations under Article 1703 (Intellectual Property National Treatment) as specifically provided for in that Article.

6. Article 1103 does not apply to treatment accorded by a Party pursuant to agreements, or with respect to sectors, set out in its Schedule to Annex IV.

7. Articles 1102, 1103 and 1107 do not apply to:

- (a) procurement by a Party or a state enterprise; or
- (b) subsidies or grants provided by a Party or a state enterprise, including government supported loans, guarantees and insurance.

8. The provisions of:

- (a) Article 1106(1)(a), (b) and (c), and (3)(a) and (b) do not apply to qualification requirements for goods or services with respect to export promotion and foreign aid programs;
- (b) Article 1106(1)(b), (c), (f) and (g), and (3)(a) and (b) do not apply to procurement by a Party or a state enterprise; and
- (c) Article 1106(3)(a) and (b) do not apply to requirements imposed by an importing Party relating to the content of goods necessary to qualify for preferential tariffs or preferential quotas.

Article 1109: Transfers

1. Each Party shall permit all transfers relating to an investment of an investor of another Party in the territory of the Party to be made freely and without delay. Such transfers include:

- (a) profits, dividends, interest, capital gains, royalty payments, management fees, technical assistance and other fees, returns in kind and other amounts derived from the investment;
- (b) proceeds from the sale of all or any part of the investment or from the partial or complete liquidation of the investment;
- (c) payments made under a contract entered into by the investor, or its investment, including payments made pursuant to a loan agreement;
- (d) payments made pursuant to Article 1110; and
- (e) payments arising under Section B.

2. Each Party shall permit transfers to be made in a freely usable currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on the date of transfer with respect to spot transactions in the currency to be transferred.

3. No Party may require its investors to transfer, or penalize its investors that fail to transfer, the income, earnings, profits or other amounts derived from, or attributable to, investments in the territory of another Party.

4. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1 and 2, a Party may prevent a transfer through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of its laws relating to:

- (a) bankruptcy, insolvency or the protection of the rights of creditors;
- (b) issuing, trading or dealing in securities;
- (c) criminal or penal offenses;
- (d) reports of transfers of currency or other monetary instruments; or
- (e) ensuring the satisfaction of judgments in adjudicatory proceedings.

5. Paragraph 3 shall not be construed to prevent a Party from imposing any measure through the equitable, non-discriminatory and good faith application of its laws relating to the matters set out in subparagraphs (a) through (e) of paragraph 4.

6. Notwithstanding paragraph 1, a Party may restrict transfers of returns in kind in circumstances where it could otherwise restrict such transfers under this Agreement, including as set out in paragraph 4.

Article 1110: Expropriation and Compensation

1. No Party may directly or indirectly nationalize or expropriate an investment of an investor of another Party in its territory or take a measure tantamount to nationalization or expropriation of such an investment ("expropriation"), except:

- (a) for a public purpose;
- (b) on a non-discriminatory basis;
- (c) in accordance with due process of law and Article 1105(1); and
- (d) on payment of compensation in accordance with paragraphs 2 through 6.

2. Compensation shall be equivalent to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation took place ("date of expropriation"), and shall not reflect any change in value occurring because the intended expropriation had become known earlier. Valuation criteria shall include going concern value, asset value including declared tax value of tangible property, and other criteria, as appropriate, to determine fair market value.

3. Compensation shall be paid without delay and be fully realizable.

4. If payment is made in a G7 currency, compensation shall include interest at a commercially reasonable rate for that currency from the date of expropriation until the date of actual payment.

5. If a Party elects to pay in a currency other than a G7 currency, the amount paid on the date of payment, if converted into a G7 currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on that date, shall be no less than if the amount of compensation owed on the date of expropriation had been converted into that G7 currency at the market rate of exchange prevailing on that date, and interest had accrued at a commercially reasonable rate for that G7 currency from the date of expropriation until the date of payment.

6. On payment, compensation shall be freely transferable as provided in Article 1109.

7. This Article does not apply to the issuance of compulsory licenses granted in relation to intellectual property rights, or to the revocation, limitation or creation of intellectual property rights, to the extent that such issuance, revocation, limitation or creation is consistent with Chapter Seventeen (Intellectual Property).

8. For purposes of this Article and for greater certainty, a non-discriminatory measure of general application shall not be considered a measure tantamount to an expropriation of a debt security or loan covered by this Chapter solely on the ground that the measure imposes costs on the debtor that cause it to default on the debt.

Article 1111: Special Formalities and Information Requirements

1. Nothing in Article 1102 shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting or maintaining a measure that prescribes special formalities in connection with the establishment of investments by investors of another Party, such as a requirement that investors be residents of the Party or that investments be legally constituted under the laws or regulations of the Party, provided that such formalities do not materially impair the protections afforded by a Party to investors of another Party and investments of investors of another Party pursuant to this Chapter.

2. Notwithstanding Articles 1102 or 1103, a Party may require an investor of another Party, or its investment in its territory, to provide routine information concerning that investment solely for informational or statistical purposes. The Party shall protect such business information that is confidential from any disclosure that would prejudice the competitive position of the investor or the investment. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent a Party from otherwise obtaining or disclosing information in connection with the equitable and good faith application of its law.

Article 1112: Relation to Other Chapters

1. In the event of any inconsistency between this Chapter and another Chapter, the other Chapter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

2. A requirement by a Party that a service provider of another Party post a bond or other form of financial security as a condition of providing a service into its territory does not of itself make this Chapter applicable to the provision of that crossborder service. This Chapter applies to that Party's treatment of the posted bond or financial security.

Article 1113: Denial of Benefits

1. A Party may deny the benefits of this Chapter to an investor of another Party that is an enterprise of such Party and to investments of such investor if investors of a non-Party own or control the enterprise and the denying Party:

(a) does not maintain diplomatic relations with the non-Party; or

(b) adopts or maintains measures with respect to the non-Party that prohibit transactions with the enterprise or that would be violated or circumvented if the benefits of this Chapter were accorded to the enterprise or to its investments.

2. Subject to prior notification and consultation in accordance with Articles 1803 (Notification and Provision of Information) and 2006 (Consultations), a Party may deny the benefits of this Chapter to an investor of another Party that is an enterprise of such Party and to investments of such investors if investors of a non-Party own or control the enterprise and the enterprise has no substantial business activities in the territory of the Party under whose law it is constituted or organized.

Article 1114: Environmental Measures

1. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to prevent a Party from adopting, maintaining or enforcing any measure otherwise consistent with this Chapter that it considers appropriate to ensure that investment activity in its territory is undertaken in a manner sensitive to environmental concerns.

2. The Parties recognize that it is inappropriate to encourage investment by relaxing domestic health, safety or environmental measures. Accordingly, a Party should not waive or otherwise derogate from, or offer to waive or otherwise derogate from, such measures as an encouragement for the establishment, acquisition, expansion or retention in its territory of an investment of an investor. If a Party considers that another Party has offered such an encouragement, it may request consultations with the other Party and the two Parties shall consult with a view to avoiding any such encouragement.

Section B Settlement of Disputes between a Party and an Investor of Another Party

Article 1115: Purpose

Without prejudice to the rights and obligations of the Parties under Chapter Twenty (Institutional Arrangements and Dispute Settlement Procedures), this Section establishes a mechanism for the settlement of investment disputes that assures both equal treatment among investors of the Parties in accordance with the principle of international reciprocity and due process before an impartial tribunal.

Article 1116: Claim by an Investor of a Party on Its Own Behalf

1. An investor of a Party may submit to arbitration under this Section a claim that another Party has breached an obligation under:

(a) Section A or Article 1503(2) (State Enterprises), or

(b) Article 1502(3)(a) (Monopolies and State Enterprises) where the monopoly has acted in a manner inconsistent with the Party's obligations under Section A, and that the investor has incurred loss or damage by reason of, or arising out of, that breach.

2. An investor may not make a claim if more than three years have elapsed from the date on which the investor first acquired, or should have first acquired, knowledge of the alleged breach and knowledge that the investor has incurred loss or damage.

Article 1117: Claim by an Investor of a Party on Behalf of an Enterprise

1. An investor of a Party, on behalf of an enterprise of another Party that is a juridical person that the investor owns or controls directly or indirectly, may submit to arbitration under this Section a claim that the other Party has breached an obligation under:

(a) Section A or Article 1503(2) (State Enterprises), or

(b) Article 1502(3)(a) (Monopolies and State Enterprises) where the monopoly has acted in a manner inconsistent with the Party's obligations under Section A, and that the enterprise has incurred loss or damage by reason of, or arising out of, that breach.

2. An investor may not make a claim on behalf of an enterprise described in paragraph 1 if more than three years have elapsed from the date on which the enterprise first acquired, or should have first acquired, knowledge of the alleged breach and knowledge that the enterprise has incurred loss or damage.

3. Where an investor makes a claim under this Article and the investor or a non-controlling investor in the enterprise makes a claim under Article 1116 arising out of the same events that gave rise to the claim under this Article, and two or more of the claims are submitted to arbitration under Article 1120, the claims should be heard together by a Tribunal established under Article 1126, unless the Tribunal finds that the interests of a disputing party would be prejudiced thereby.

4. An investment may not make a claim under this Section.

Article 1118: Settlement of a Claim through Consultation and Negotiation

The disputing parties should first attempt to settle a claim through consultation or negotiation.

Article 1119: Notice of Intent to Submit a Claim to Arbitration
